Re: Request for help and notice of impending federal regulation violation.

Governor Edmund Gerald "Jerry" Brown Jr.
c/o State Capitol, Suite 1173
Sacramento, CA 95814

Attention: Edmund Gerald "Jerry" Brown Jr.

Dear: Edmund Gerald "Jerry" Brown Jr.

Please consider reversing and/or repealing your entire policy pertaining to water which is actually encouraging the California drought; people should be encouraged to [adequately] water their plants including without limitation to their lawn.

"Plants are an essential part of the water cycle. They absorb water from the soil through their roots, releasing it back into the atmosphere from pores on their leaves called stomates. The water that evaporates from the leaves of the rainforest plants returns to earth as precipitation and plays a critical role in maintaining local humidity."

Disbelieve me? Examine how California's neighbor to the north, Oregon waters; in a recent trip to Oregon I personally witnessed people watering whilst it was raining; ask Oregon's Governor, Kate Brown, (503) 378-4582, Twitter @OregonGovBrown, Facebook @KateBrownforOR.

Impending federal regulation violation, "Mandate federally criminalizing and prohibiting: incentivizing[3][3], inhibiting[3][3][3], retarding or otherwise interfering with [adequate] watering[2] of plants including without limitation to lawns."
